

ANNUAL JIBC APPLIED RESEARCH DAY

Thursday, April 5, 2018

JIBC, New Westminster Campus

The 8th annual event aims to raise awareness of the important role applied research plays in scholarship, student engagement and solving real world issues, and showcases student-led research of JIBC undergraduate students.

The Use of Research in Developing Public Safety Professionals

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Photo by: Jane Brokenshire

STEVE PALMER, P. ENG.

Executive Director, Collaborative Centre for Justice & Safety and Canadian Institute for Public Safety Research & Treatment, University of Regina

Learn about how research informs practice, the need for evidence-based practice, and future research priorities in public safety.

THE DAY WILL FEATURE:

- Keynote speaker
- Capstone student presentations
- Speed research – faculty and students
- A poster session on display in the atrium

PRESENTATIONS: 8:30 am - 1:30 pm (Theatre)

POSTER DISPLAYS: Thursday and Friday (Atrium)

JIBC, 715 McBride Boulevard, New Westminster

Online registration: jibc.ca/research/events

Live webcast available at jibc.ca/webcast

For additional information contact appliedresearch@jibc.ca